ABOUT LLMOVES

Founded in 2014, LLMoves is a NYC-based company focused on integrating dance with fashion, film, visual arts, and music in unique collaborations. By combining a variety of artistic mediums in innovative ways, founder Lindsey L. Miller strives to use art to impact audiences' thoughts and emotions through a sensory experience. The choreography focuses on utilizing classically influenced lines with a contemporary aesthetic to showcase the company dancers' athleticism and grace. LLMoves' mission is to produce interdisciplinary work for concert dance scenes, as well as incorporating dance into fashion shows, film, photography, music videos, art galleries, museums, and immersive theater experiences.

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR:

LINDSEY L. MILLER

Lindsey L. Miller is a professional dancer and choreographer based in NYC. Professionally, she has danced for notable choreographers and companies, including Karole Armitage, Benoit Swan Pouffer, Desmond Richardson as a guest dancer with Complexions Contemporary Ballet, Abdur-Raheim Jackson, Quixotic, Alison Cook Beatty Dance, Beth Soll, Heidi Latsky Dance On Display Installations, Trainor Dance, Lydia Johnson, Kim Nofsinger's Shelter Repertory Dance Theatre, and Ballet des Amériques. She has also danced and modeled for brands, such as Marc Jacobs for NYFW, Aveda, L'Oreal Matrix, Dance Magazine, GEOX, Nikon, Body Wrappers, Lululemon, Oribe, KD Dancewear, and Make Up For Ever. She has been featured in dance film work, such as Maroon 5 and Lorde's tour visuals, Run the World TV pilot, and the feature film Asura filmed in Beijing, China. She graduated with honors from Illinois State University with a degree in dance performance and trained in the professional training program at the Martha Graham School of Contemporary Dance.

In 2014, she founded her own dance/media company, LLMoves, to develop a platform for her own collaborative projects combining dance with fashion, film, photography, and music. In 2021, Lindsey was a recipient of a City Corps Grant from the New York Foundation of the Arts.
